13th ifo Dresden Workshop on Labor Economics and Social Policy

May 16th–17th, 2024 in Dresden, Germany

The Dresden Branch of the ifo Institute and the Technische Universität Dresden invite you to submit your (preliminary) paper to the 13th ifo Dresden Workshop on Labor Economics and Social Policy. Relevant topics include, but are not limited to, evaluations of labor market policies and related social programs, minorities and integration measures, behavioral economics, and health and inequality issues. Preference is given to papers estimating causal effects and using novel methods.

We specifically encourage PhD students and post-doctoral researchers to submit their current research. Each paper will be allocated 45 minutes, divided between the presentation, a discussion by an assigned workshop participant and a general discussion.

Submissions:

Please submit your contribution by February 1st, 2024 via the workshop website.

Acceptance decisions will be announced by March 15th, 2024.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Dresden.
